Princess Anne of Bourbon-Parma will wed King Michael of Roumania next month. An aide to the King said the couple will meet in Louzanne, Switzerland, Sunday to lay final plans for the nuptials.

In Williams Lake, B.C., a young all force veteran, who couldn't swim, leaped from a 30-foot bank into the Fraser river in a futile effort to save his five-year-old son who was carried into the river when a runaway truck went over the embankment. Both drowned.

Osteopath Dr. M. S. Goldberger, Saginaw, Mich., broke his arm in a golf course fall, went to the hospital, found one of his patients about to become a mother, delivered twins, then had his broken arm set.

Rev. A. Ray Meserve of the United Church in Shirley, Mass., called a special service "for sinners only." It was well attended even though the "sinners and sinners" were asked to stay away.

In New York, 68-year-old former trustee artist Anthony Dupre paced the floor while his wife gave birth to triplets, bringing the total number of his children to 35. His present wife is his fourth.

Conservative Leader Winston Churchill declined to become a freeman of the borough of Luton, Bedfordshire. His reason: "I would cause distress among the borough's socialist members."

Vancouver B.C. police have extended the search for 21-year-old Percy Baker to the U.S., following a report that a man meeting his description passed U.S. customs Tuesday. He is wanted in connection with the hammer-slaying of his 30-year-old wife.

In Sudbury, Ont., a 3-year-old nature was charged with exploding dynamite. On Victoria Day, not wanting "sissy" fireworks, he threw a stick of dynamite at a hotel, blew a hole in the wall and lost most of the clothes of a young girl entering the building. She was uninjured.

Six Philadelphia city employees have been suspended and a clerk charged with embezzlement after amusement tax funds were found to be short $300,000.

Scotland Yard officials are probing a trio of mysterious collisions in England. The first of three days was killed and the husband suffered a broken wrist, cuts and shock.

Social Credit members of parliament for the northern Quebec constituency of Pontiac Real Caouette, assured his fellow members that reports of him keeping machine guns in his cellar are untrue. In fact, he said, his house hasn't got a cellar.

In Hoeman, Scotland, headmaster George Adams suffered a heart attack and died while strapping three girls for truancy. The school closed for the day.

A 23-year-old Negro dancer, Claude Marchant, won a jury award of $1,000 from a New York apartment under the Federal Law. The apartment had denied him the use of the passenger elevator.

An 18-year-old London, England, girl died after a violent prolonged siege of hiccoughing. Her sister had died of a similar ailment six weeks ago.

Ex-GI Ray Halloran won a national "Why I Hate Texas" contest; was taken to Texas at the state's expense to learn to like it. He was served breakfast in bed by five Texas beauties, had a street named after him, saw a sign "Halloran Slept Here" in his former barracks, was called "Tex" and was thrown into Lake Kickapoo.

British government officials will not interfere in efforts of private individuals to grow tobacco for their own use. About 100 cigarettes can be "grown" for the price of one imported one.

HYPNOSIS RETURNS SIGHT TO YOUTH

LONDON, May 26.—(CP)—Dr. A. P. Magonet, who earlier this year delivered two women's children under hypnosis, now has restored sight to a "blind" eye of a 16-year-old Londoner.

Dr. Magonet, graduate of Dalhousie University, came from Glace Bay, N.S., in 1939.

Ten years ago a scissors blade was accidentally thrust through the eye of David Champion. Although the wound healed and the eye returned to normal he could not see through it.

"The trouble was psychological," Dr. Magonet told the Canadian Press. "It was simply that the brain had forgotten that the eye was there."

Dollar Shortage Hits Alaska Road

Army Unable to Get Needed Equipment in United States

By Charles B. Lynch
WHITEHORSE, Yukon Territory, May 26.—(Reuters)—Canada's shortage of United States dollars is hampering maintenance work on the Alaska highway, it was learned today.

Although Washington regards the highway as a key piece in Alaskan defenses, the monetary tangle is preventing Canadian maintenance crews from getting the United States equipment they need.

The Canadian army, when it took over the highway after the war, inherited almost all of the equipment used by the Americans to build the road three years previously. There have been few replacements and much of the heavy machinery is badly worn.

Only source for this type of equipment is the United States, and orders for large-scale replacements were put in last year. Then, Canada's shortage of U.S. dollars became acute, and the orders were cancelled.

By working almost constantly on the giant vehicles, the Canadian army has managed to keep them operating. But nobody with whom it talked gave any guarantee the Canadian Electrical and Mechanical Engineers could get the maintenance equipment going by next year.

Hill Unable to Sleep If Children Suffering

Suffering of little children prevents Alberta Child Welfare Superintendent Charles B. Hill from sleeping at nights.

Under cross-examination before the Alberta Children's Commission for the third day today Mr. Hill told E. D. Arnold, Calgary Herald, that:

"If I feel that children are suffering, as stated by Mr. Hobbs (a former Calgary justice of the juvenile court who testified earlier in the probe), I am unable to sleep at night and I didn't sleep."

The testimony of Hobbs had been given at an "in camera" session of the Commission's policy of not permitting public examination of specific cases.

Mr. Arnold told Mr. Hill he believed witness would be greatly concerned over the suffering of children.

Mr. Arnold's cross-examination was aimed in general at uncovering reasons for the Alberta government's alleged refusal to co-operate with the IODE investigation of child welfare in the province.

Correspondence between Mrs. R. C. Marshall, provincial president of the IODE and Hon. Dr. W. W. Cross, provincial minister of public welfare, was read by counsel.

PROBE UNNECESSARY
The government had taken the view that another investigation was unnecessary following the welfare probe of 1943. Further objection had been also taken by the minister to revealing case histories of an organization in no way responsible for welfare in this province.

Mr. Hill said his job was to carry out policy of the government but agreed with the minister's stand.

Another letter to municipal welfare departments, instructing that IODE investigators must obtain case history material from the minister only was read.

Superintendent Hill again stated he believed that municipal welfare departments would have helped clarify many cases referred to in the Whittier report if his advice had been sought before the report was published.

Reading of excerpts from several articles Alberta child welfare published in the Calgary Herald, occupied most of the commission session Wednesday.

A jail sentence of one month for each charge was levied by Magistrate Simpson.

Air Service Is Sought

Applications by Associated Airways Ltd., and Frank Hawthorne operate, chartered flights out of Lower Hay River were being considered today by the Air Transport Board of Canada.

John Wilson, president of the Yellowknife Transport Co. Ltd., told the commission there was urgent need for chartered flights in the Lower Hay River territory.

He said the district had never been served with reliable chartered service.

At present airplanes must be chartered either from Yellowknife or Edmonton.

The territory is rapidly opening up and this spring there was considerable work for chartered planes had they been available he said.

Thomas Fox, president of Associated Airways Ltd., said the company operated 13 airplanes, had eight pilots and equipment to do practically all its own repair and overhaul work.

Judgment was reserved in the case of Yellowknife Air Taxi and Air Service Co.

The board was investigating allegation that the company was not keeping records of accounts in compliance with regulations stipulated in its license.

Airline Head Visits City

H. W. Ryan, of Winnipeg, general manager of Canadian Pacific Airlines, is a visitor in Edmonton today on a routine inspection of company facilities here.

Accompanied by Mrs. Ryan and their daughter Beverly, Mr. Ryan "ferried" a company plane here for use on runs out of Edmonton.

Before leaving Edmonton Friday, he plans to make an inspection trip to Yellowknife.

This was the text of a letter following their request for an order of 100,000 bags of cement from Canada Cement Company.

Despite doubling of its Eschaw plant, the company will be unable to meet the city's demands, H. H. McGuire, sales manager, told council.

Council was also advised that no 1948 "black top" asphalt delivery had been available in Rising waters of the North Saskatchewan river have delayed action to kill Atlantic No. 3 well in the Leduc oil field.

This was announced today by the Alberta Natural Gas and Oil Conservation Board.

The announcement stated that the start of water injections at Imperial Leduc No. 48 being undertaken as a possible means of killing Atlantic No. 3 by flooding has been delayed by rise in North Saskatchewan river level.

Threatening rise of waters necessitated the dismantling and evacuation of heavy equipment at a large temporary pumping station on the banks of the river.

Building of the pumping station was "just nearing completion" when it was decided to move the equipment.

Pumping station was to utilize river water in the effort to kill the rampaging Atlantic well.

"The relocation of the equipment at a safe level has involved changing the originally-planned method of taking water from the river and also requires additional equipment," stated the Conservation Board.

It is hoped that the new installations will be completed on Thursday.

In the meantime, the first of the two directionally-drilled holes being undertaken to assure the ultimate complete control of Atlantic No. 3 has been reported ready to spud in rig for this hole is set up about 750 feet from the Atlantic blow-out.

Improvements to Jasper National Park will cost nearly five million dollars this year, according to Hon. James A. MacKinnon, federal minister of fisheries and member of parliament for Edmonton-West.

In a radio address, Mr. MacKinnon indicated most of the five million would be increase voted or authorized for the year '48.

An important section of the work to be undertaken will be the hard-surfacing of some of the northern end of the Jasper-Banff highway. Some of the rest of the inter-park road will be prepared for hard-surfacing.

The part of the Jasper highway from Edmonton which lies within the park gates #11 also is not prepared for hard-surfacing and extensive road operations performance.

It was learned from tourist officials in Edmonton this morning most of the park's roads required extensive re-building before hard-surfacing operations can start.

Alberta Welfare Head Is Quizzed

Superintendent Hill Says Dr. Whitton Wanted a Job

Charles B. Hill, Alberta welfare superintendent, Tuesday charged Dr. Charlotte Whitton, Ottawa welfare expert, "wanted another job" when she convinced the IOE a survey of conditions in this province was necessary.

The Whitton report, a survey of child welfare conditions in Alberta, was published last July by the IOE and led to the present Royal Commission investigation.

Mr. Hill was questioned by E. D. Arnold, counsel for the Calgary Herald, as he completed his sixth day on the stand.

ASKED AS TO MOTIVE
The witness was asked what he thought Dr. Whitton had as a motive in the Alberta survey.

"I thought perhaps she wanted another job and came here and convinced the IOE that a survey was needed," Mr. Hill said.

"I do feel," Mr. Hill continued, "that the IOE should have gone to Dr. Cross and the Welfare Board and let them complete their survey and told of their findings."

"I could have convinced her (Dr. Whitton) that her findings were untrue," he added.

Mr. Hill said that before an interview by Dr. Whitton and Mrs. R. C. Marshall, former president of the Alberta chapter, IOE, Welfare Board, Mr. Cross, minister of health and welfare, and himself, he had been told by a mutual friend that Dr. Whitton was "out to get Hill."

The "friend" had seen Dr. Whitton at an Edmonton hotel and there had been told that she and other members of the IOE delegation intended to put seven proposals before the government.

"If the government grants our requests, we've got them where we want them," Mr. Hill quoted his friend's version of Dr. Whitton's remarks.

WANTED PUBLICITY
"She said they wanted to get all the publicity they could and they wanted to get Mr. Hill."

Mr. Cross knew these statements before Dr. Whitton and her associates visited his office.

"Knowing these things, how could I be a fair and impartial investigator? Why wouldn't they question my motives?"

"I might say that Dr. Whitton talked to the IOE, convinced them there was something questionable here and that she was the one person in the world to do the job," Mr. Hill said.

Home Owners Lose Appeals
Condition of roads, muddy streets and lack of services were reasons for appeal against the 1948 land assessment given today by appellants appearing before city commissioners sitting as a court of revision on 12 assessments.

A total of 245 appeals have been entered by property owners against this year's assessment. The majority of the appellants pleaded that their assessments were too high in relation to other properties in the neighborhood.

Those appealing on the grounds of road conditions, lack of services and muddy streets were informed by city assessor Thomas Walker that these were not grounds for appeal.

The cases could be dealt with only on the grounds that the property assessment was too high.

Veteran residents in the Pleasantview sub-division, incorporated into the city's limits on January 1 last, have entered appeals against their assessment on the grounds it is too high in relation to the services rendered the district.

Thirty-six residents in the Glenora district have appealed on the grounds that integrated plan houses erected in the neighborhood have lowered the value of their properties.

Nine appeals were dealt with by the court of revision at the morning session and in each case the assessment was confirmed and the appeal dismissed.

HALF CENTURY OF RAILROADING ENDS JUNE 1

June 1 will bring the end of 50 years of railroad service to an NAR dining car conductor.

George R. Quigley, 10143 123 street, will complete his last run on that date.

During his 50 years of service, he has worked for most railroads in Canada and some in the United States.

He started as a dining car waiter in 1898 at St. John, New Brunswick.

He joined the NAR on January 4, 1920.

Mr. Quigley is a member of St. George's Masonic Lodge 440 in Montreal, North Star Chapter No. 2, Edmonton and the Azhar Shrine, Calgary.

He has no family.

Seeding Down In Alberta
Seeding in Alberta did not become general until this week, according to a crop report issued today by the Alberta department of agriculture.

The report says 15 per cent of the wheat in the Edmonton district had been sown by Tuesday, but also points out seeding is still only possible on high, light lands.

In some districts acreage sown to wheat may be down by 35 per cent from last year, but there will be a corresponding increase in the planting of coarse and feed grains.

Surveying the overall picture, the report claims 45 per cent of the seeding has been completed in the province, but in some south-eastern Alberta districts as much as 80 per cent of the seed is already below ground.

In the Peace River area it is said 45 per cent of the wheat is planted.

Condition of livestock in the province, which received a severe setback early in the season from a feed shortage, has improved from "poor" to "fair" and "good."

A feed shortage earlier in the year is also reflected in dairy production, the crop report says. It is 10 per cent of last year's production.

Poor bad conditions, affecting cream delivery, and very poor pastures are blamed for the creamery production loss.

Features have shown considerable improvement recently.

The Eve tribe of western Africa holds the leopard sacred and a man may be put to death for killing one.

Have you $10.00 in UNITED STATES Money?

Existing regulations make it illegal for any Canadian resident to retain in his possession more than $10 in United States cash.

You are required to turn in to your bank, for exchange into Canadian money, any amount you have in excess of $10 in United States funds, without delay.

THERE'S A REASON
The reason is that Canada must have the U.S. dollars spent here by tourists, in order to make them available for the payment of imported goods and services needed to keep production and employment at a high level.

Spring Comes to Edmonton

The long and dreary postponement of Spring has not been entirely a misfortune because the season has come upon us so suddenly that the annual realization of this city's loveliness has taken on the added value of winter.

A protracted Winter, even a mild one, can do strange things to memory. The snow, the slush, the mud can blot out so very easily the recollection of that vernal magic by which a whole community, almost overnight, will break into blossom.

But that enchantment has been repeated in Edmonton.

We went to sleep one night last week in a stark and chilly world. We awoke next morning to find the earth re clothed with green.

And now the season is in full glorious stride. The verdant velvet of lawns has sprung up everywhere. The yellow sunshine picks out the silver in the new fluttering leaves.

So Spring has come to Edmonton. And it has come most particularly to the whole river area which, in spite of its present tendency to misbehave, is the nucleus of Edmonton's scenic charm and could be the centre of Edmonton's recreation life.

It is possible by looking at a thing of beauty overlong to underestimate its grace. And that, we think, is sometimes the case with the natural comeliness of the North Saskatchewan, winding its way in delicious curves through the heart of the city, between sun-drenched flats and rolling banks.

Landscape with skill and taste along its entire civic length, the river region could be made to lend to Edmonton a unique allure possessed by few cities on this continent.

And the tributary ravines are parks in themselves, requiring only the minimum of development and care to be transformed into attractive beauty spots.

Edmonton, with its natural advantages, could become the jewel of the West, not only fascinating its own people, but beckoning with a friendly and a lovely hand to all that host of men and women throughout the prairies who seek a kindly and delightful place to spend the Autumn of their lives.

Spring, perhaps, makes us ambitious. But it also makes Edmonton's potentialities attractively clear.

Logic in Israel's Appeal

There is sound logic in the request of the Jewish B'Nai Brith lodges, convening in Edmonton, that the Canadian government permit the shipment of arms to the State of Israel and ban the shipment of arms to the Arab nations at war with that state.

The United Nations authorized the partition of Palestine into Arab and Jewish states.

The State of Israel, therefore, is doing no more and claiming no more than was granted by the nations of the world. The seven Arab nations are opposing the spirit of the decision of the United Nations. They are, in effect, in rebellion against civilization's highest court.

Canada played an important part in the Security Council of the United Nations, in the steps that eventually authorized the formation of the State of Israel.

Canada, then, is one of the authorities upon whose decision the State of Israel is founded. In a sense, Canada is one of the sponsors of the State of Israel.

If this country is to be consistent, it should aid Israel and discourage the attacking Arab nations.

Dubious Claims for the Budget

Attacks on the budget continue in the house of commons, largely on the vote-catching basis of the public's need for a lower income tax.

The people of Canada do require a lower income tax. And it is to the credit of Mr. Abbott's political integrity that he resisted the temptation to formulate a popular budget in favor of the budget that he believed to be economically sound.

But where the budget is vulnerable is not so much in its defiance of the public cry for reduced taxation as in the error of Mr. Abbott's view that it will have a deflationary effect.

The fundamental idea behind Mr. Abbott's policy is that inflationary and deflationary effects can be produced by governments taxing heavily and redeeming public debt in good times and taxing lightly and increasing public debt in bad times.

This is a dubious claim because, in spite of Mr. Abbott's revelation that the government has used more than a billion dollars to reduce outstanding government debt in the past year, it is admitted that the supply of active money as calculated by the Bank of Canada, cash reserve of the chartered banks and other indices of money in circulation have not declined in anything like the same striking manner.

Deflationary budgets, then, simply do not deflate, at least in the degree claimed for them.

The further facts that salary payments were $68,000,000 larger in February, 1948, than in February, 1947, and that the gross national production in 1947 was 13 percent above that of 1946 indicate that government fiscal policy does not wholly determine the economic trend of the country.

The most reasonable criticism of the budget is that it is a planned economy budget and experience has not yet proved that planned economy works. The basic business of government is to raise money for essential services and not in an attempt to control economic trends.

Early History Relived In Colorful St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—In this great crossroads city they have one of the finest history museums that I have ever seen. It literally pictures the history of these parts in what look like real life dramas.

It seems that during the depression one of the WPA projects they gave to unemployed artists was to depict the history of the United States in miniature tableaux form.

PHILPOTT of a sculptor made a whole series of doll-size figures, which picture the most significant scenes in the history of this country.

The most interesting in the group is the scene in which the commander of the French "barrier" here handed over the sovereignty—in keeping with the sale by Napoleon of what was later an empire.

The Americans were literally thrust back in the first years of the nineteenth century or else Napoleon was a prize nitwit in business. Anyway, he "sold" the land stretching from the Gulf of Mexico to the Canadian border for $15 million. That would not buy a downtown block in St. Louis today.

On the steps of the court house, which displays the historical exhibits, slaves were once sold, and also railroads and highways, while the various racial groups also met.

The same court house, which tried the famous Dred Scott case, which threatened to extend slavery even to the previously "free" states.

The clash of color—white and black—is still the most striking, obvious and also ominous feature of life here today.

There are also small surprises for anyone willing to probe a bit into the background of the "white" and "black" minorities.

The French Influence is still strong here—for the obvious reason that this city was for centuries a centre of French political and economic power; but the English influence is evident, too, in the many English names of streets, direct from Britain. Few cities in the world can boast a finer park than the one here.

Shaw, who arrived here in 1819 with only a few boxes of cutlery and built up an immense fortune.

The park which he planned contains just about every known tree which can be grown in this climate.

You can see young Englishmen playing cricket in the park here of a Sunday afternoon. On inquiry, you might learn that most of them are chartered accountants and the like, working for international firms.

The Germans came in strong after the Civil War, at the time of the 1840's. Two entire suburbs of this great city are overwhelmingly German in culture.

THE UNSEEN AUDIENCE

YOU MEAN TO SAY YOU NEVER GO TO SOAP OPERAS OR COMMERCIALS?

BUT HOW DO YOU DO IT?

EASY. I HAVEN'T GOT A RADIO

It started early in January. My wife was teasing and turning in bed. I asked her there was anything wrong. "No, nothing," she said. "It's just that I'm worried about whether Kay will meet Bert Cavalier." I snapped on the light. I looked at her carefully for any signs of delirium.

"Friends of yours?" I inquired. "No," my wife said and she explained it to me. Bert Cavalier was the name of a man who had been advertising off and on for several weeks in the "Personal" column. It seemed he was trying to make contact with someone named Kay and had, at last, proposed a rendezvous. Broadway and Cambie at 8 p.m.

I snapped off the light and forgot about the whole thing, little dreaming (as the saying goes) that I was on the threshold of an historic tale of unrequited love, written in aptote type.

In fact, I'd have forgotten permanently except that, four or five days later, my wife spoke to me across the dinner table. "She didn't show up," my wife said. "Oh," I said blankly. "Which?"

"Kay," my wife said. "The lost love of Bert Cavalier. He has another ad in the Personal column tonight. He says he's disappointed."

"That's too bad," I said. But my heart wasn't in it. January 17 my wife reported that Bert Cavalier had proposed another meeting. January 23 she mentioned mournfully that Bert had advertised his regret. Kay had not kept the appointment. January 27 she informed me that Bert's morale seemed to be at a new low. He advertised that his only result was "an unkind letter from someone else."

It was around this time that I started reading "The Sun's Personal" column pretty regularly.

When? Where? The dates I have mentioned above are not from memory. I have been through the files. I have a copy of every ad inserted by Bert Cavalier since January 6. They number exactly 35 and Kay is still as elusive as ever.

In fact, there's no real evidence that there is a Kay. January 16, after Bert had registered his disappointment, he appeared. "Bert," he said, "I am so disappointed and would like to see you. Arrange contact. K."

But this may be a hoax. Kay is always getting tangled up with other people's "Personal" ads, as lowhead Route) of which Mayor Almay is president.

It is also worth to thank you for bringing out the fact that there are $24,000,000 worth of petitions for local improvements at the City Hall. No doubt, our Civic Betterment Committee campaign was largely responsible for this amount. It is a proud record but the amount would have been much larger if we had not been interfered with.

Incidentally, on October 16th, 1946, Mayor Almay, the commissioners and the city council in a meeting, all went on record as "definitely in favor of a tentative paving program for the next year of $750,000.00 as an annual minimum." Petitions at the city hall covering graveling sidewalks and boulevards are aside and must total a considerable amount.

Now, E. M. W. you may possibly be unaware of the fact, but in the world there really are some people who cannot look at such lowly, Cyclic pictures, which appeared in "The Bulletin," and which you labelled "disturbing" with a following of disgusting thoughts of sex, to enter their minds.

No such thoughts entered my mind, therefore I could not see anything wrong with the pictures. With regards to the "new look" (long skirts), it may be that you are naturally interested in some dressmaking establishment, or better still, you may, in some way, be connected with the Edmonton street-cleaning department, for I am confident that department will give you a lot of work.

Finally, I am sure that you, E. M. W., for you to send a copy of my recent letter to the chief of police for his file, just in case his morality squad may want to check up on me sometime.

Muzzle Blasts Editor, Bulletin—How much longer are we inhabitants to put up with the unruly dogs of this city?

Packs of dogs roam the streets, tearing up the lawns, barking day and night. Some of the day passes without a dog fight.

The simple solution of muzzling all dogs on the streets would save a lot of bother and noise.

I doubt if anything will ever be done to solve this city's evil. I have one of his own children badly hurt and even then I doubt any steps will be taken beyond the one dog that did the damage.

Good progress has been made in preparing the way for the big new National Insurance Scheme which comes into operation in July. The Ministry of National Insurance has a lot of bother and 700 local offices from which sickness, maternity and other benefits will be paid. It is estimated that some three million men and women will enter insurance for the first time this July. Every adult will be entitled to receive the benefits provided under the scheme as well as those coming from abroad to take up employment in Britain.

OUR TOWN

Shadow Romance Hard to Follow

Somewhere in this big old town there is a mysterious woman named Kay. I am addressing this column to her. Kay, for her sake, will you please get together with Bert Cavalier and put him, my wife and me out of our misery.

It started early in January. My wife was teasing and turning in bed. I asked her there was anything wrong. "No, nothing," she said. "It's just that I'm worried about whether Kay will meet Bert Cavalier." I snapped on the light. I looked at her carefully for any signs of delirium.

if he didn't have enough trouble on his own.

On one recent occasion after asking for an appointment under the Birk's name, I was reported: "Received eleven appointments. Would you please let me know when you are here?"

Neither my wife nor I can figure out how this terribly one-sided affair began. The only clue is in one ad (Feb. 12) in which Bert wrote: "Once worked as an elevator operator at the M.D.B. For identification your purse I held, brooch I stamped on."

What bizarre meeting could this suggest? My wife thinks that Kay may have been a passenger on Bert Cavalier's elevator. That he dropped a brooch which Bert accidentally stepped on. The Bert held her purse while she picked up the pieces, "realized that this was love and somehow worried her party because she suggested that this is fantastic. But it's as good a guess as I can make."

Obviously it is love of one kind or another. Bert usually ends his ads with "I am waiting for you." Only this Tuesday finished up with "I.L. You always."

It was with this blank wall of silence and classified advertising rates such devotion is well nigh incredible.

Followed To The End

Awake back last February 7 Bert Cavalier was saying: "I never did, nor never will forget you. Keep your hope to see you some time. Nearly three months later (April 26) still without a reply, he was saying: "Please don't worry, we will find a way."

My wife says no woman can resist a man (or boy number) as convinced as that, for obviously the mysterious Kay is neither a girl nor a boy. I keep trying to find a way. "Cavalier refuses to recognize defeat," my wife says. "He deserves a few minutes under the Birks clock."

Obviously I will avoid any obstacle," says Bert Cavalier (March 3).

This week has been a strenuous one for Bert. His correspondence seems to have got all mixed up with the Birk's name. I am sure that Kay is neither a girl nor a boy. I keep trying to find a way. "Cavalier refuses to recognize defeat," my wife says. "He deserves a few minutes under the Birks clock."

Anti-Communist Bill Is Opposed

Legislation Finds Single Backer in House Tuesday

OTTAWA, May 26.—(CP)—The anti-Communist bill came up for second reading in the Commons last night and found only one supporter among the four speakers who debated it.

Lawrence Skey (PC-Toronto Trinity), the lone proponent, said Tim Buck, the Communist leader in Canada, lived in his riding and had opposed him in the last general election. Thus, he was well aware of the tactics of the Communist party.

Halpin Maybank (L-Winnipeg South Centre), expressing objection to the bill, observed that Mr. Skey had, in effect, said: "I was opposed by Tim Buck in the last election and therefore I will support this bill."

That, added Mr. Maybank, was the very thing this type of legislation would lead to.

SHELVED FOR PRESENT
The bill, which would outlaw Communism in Canada, was sponsored by Wilfrid Laurier (L-Quebec-Montmorency). As it made no progress in the hour set aside for private members' legislation, it now goes to the bottom of the list and may not come up again this session.

T. J. Bentley (CCF-Swift Current) said the legislation would weaken Canadian institutions. It indicated a lack of faith in those institutions or a "childish" fear of Communism. He did not care for either of these aspects.

David Cross (L-Toronto Spadina) said passage of a law would not do away with Communism but rather would drive it underground where it would thrive and flourish.

AT FIRST MEETING
Bentley said he had attended the first meeting of the Communist party in western Canada that was in 1919 and it was his first and last meeting with the Communist party.

He did not agree with the idea of the Communists but at the same time he did not advocate that they should be imprisoned, outlawed or shot, as some would suggest.

Wealthy Greek To Go On Trial

$750,000 Claims For Ship Collision

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 26.—(CP)—A lawsuit involving claims and counter-claims totalling $750,000 opened in Admiralty Supreme Court here yesterday as two shipping companies began their legal battle over the collision of the SS Oglethorpe Victory and the SS Stankeld last September.

Black Diamond Steamship Company, a United States firm, is owner of the Oglethorpe Victory. The Stankeld is owned by J. A. Billmeyer Company of London.

The collision occurred in thick fog off Cape Race, Nfld. There were no casualties.

Highway mileage of the world is in the neighborhood of 9,000,000 miles of which one-third is in the United States.

Defence Policy Debate To Spark Legion Meet

SASKATOON, May 26.—(CP)—The topic of defence policy, in which they as ex-servicemen have a personal interest, may spark vigorous debate when recommendations on it come before delegates attending the national convention of the Canadian Legion.

Defence may share honors with proposals for the deportation of foreign-born Communists—proposals which still are to come before the nearly 1,000 legionnaires.

So far the convention has dealt with dozens of resolutions without prolonged debate on any point. But today the vexatious question of housing is on the agenda, with a committee expected to report that the housing shortage, in the view of legion branches generally, has not shown any substantial improvement.

Delegates yesterday voted down a British Columbia motion against the appointment of an official at $2,000 or $6,000 a year to give national direction to the sale of poppies on Nov. 11.

Li-Col. L. D. M. Baxter of Winnipeg is considered a likely choice to succeed Maj.-Gen. C. B. Price of Montreal as president of the Legion. Gen. Price is due to step down. Col. Baxter is first vice-president of legion branches generally.

... From the Dugout

A 'council of war' was held Tuesday afternoon in the local headquarters of the Big Four League. Present: Harry Joseph Roche, Circuit President; Managers Laurel, Harney and Ed Morris; press and radio Joes; Messrs Beatty and Ducey.

The topic: 'What's wrong with the Cubs?'
The verdict: Nothing... that a few good ballplayers can't do something about.

Some help is supposedly en route although after the way one Milton Bankhead took run-out powder, no one is counting any chickens for the present. In any event pitcher Don Fort and catcher-infielder Jack Bernstein were presumably headed out of Ventura, Calif., by car Tuesday morning. The pair might make it in time to get into the week-end series against Calgary Buffs at Renfrew Park. Will Fort and Bernstein help? Who can tell... until later!

Ernie Marlow Had a Yen

For a time Monday it appeared that Ernie Marlow was going to do a return engagement at Renfrew. The Californian served an out-field hit with Esks two seasons ago before catching the eye of a New York Yankee scout. He wired saying that he was available only to experience a change of heart later. Esks will add Clarence Mellybe, a moundsman from Twin Falls, within the next couple of days.

Question of the length of Big Four games also was aired at Tuesday's 'council of war'. It was generally agreed that the presence of so many green rookies in the line-ups of Esks and Esks, particularly moundsmen, was prolonging the games beyond the desired time. As well the suggestion was made that a speeding up all along the line was required.

The umpires were panned. One critic maintained the officials don't know the rule book the way they should. As well the claim was made that certain of the men in blue should be seen and heard a lot less than is customary at Renfrew. In any event an 'umpiring school' is almost certain to be held. Feeling is that it will help no end.

We're Not Alibing—Harney
At no time was the fact lost sight of that the training period for Cubs and Esks was all too brief. Managers Harney and Morris have had to do plenty of 'schooling' in the heat of battle... reasons that normally would be taught during the pre-season sessions. 'We're not alibing,' Harney made clear. 'Give us a little time and a few more players and we'll do alright.'

Week-end briefs: 'Waddy' Luckby, 'all-American' out last season collected nine hits in 15 trips while Calgary Purty three walloped Cubs at Renfrew... If Cal Pickles was asking for trouble when he agreed to give a prize for a game over 'his' sign on the Park's right wall he's getting all he bargained for. Already 'Buffs' 'Chuck' Restell, Esks Dave Brock and Ernie Beal of Purty have earned a new deal with an over-the-fence shot.

Vern Callahan looks promising. The Junior League and his full fat ball. He might come pretty good before the season wanes. Al Purvis is another who's been keeping around for further inspection. Ray Canepa, outfielder of Cubs, is a product of Galois High in San Francisco. This is the school which sent the DiMaggios, Tony Lazzeri and more out into the baseball world.

Latest Pacific Coast League swat averages show Alex Kampouris homing with the upper crust for the first time since he shed his GI status. The Golden Greek, who scored a number of home runs while he played at Renfrew season 1945, was clubbing 'Pats' Rowland's ace pitcher, who's a clip, fifth highest in the loop that has those major league growing pains.

MOHER
SCHRINER ASKS LEAFS TO RETURN SIGNED CONTRACT
CALGARY, May 26.—(CP)—Dave (Sweeney) Schriener, coach of Lethbridge Maple Leafs in the Western Canada Hockey League during the last two seasons, disclosed Tuesday that he had asked club officials to return his signed 1948-49 contract.

The former NHL star said Lethbridge officials had promised a year-round job, with employment in Calgary during the summer months and the coaching job during the winter. He said he signed a contract with coach Leafs next season under those conditions. However, he added no effort had been made by Lethbridge to secure the type of employment originally offered.

He indicated that he might accept a coaching position at the Pacific Coast if the Lethbridge deal fell through. He would not say which coast center he might go to.

BEN HOGAN SWINGS TO 2nd PGA VICTORY

ST. LOUIS, May 26.—(AP)—Ben Hogan, golf's smiling little mechanical wizard, trounced Mike Turney of White Plains, N.Y., seven and six in a 35-hole final match Tuesday to win his second Professional Golfers' Association championship.

With $2,000 at stake, the difference between $3,500 first money and $1,500 second money, Hogan proved too efficient and consistent for Turney, 30-year-old 'working' club pro who plays in comparatively few tournaments.

Hogan, winner of the title in 1946, registered an approximate medal score of 65 for the morning round and kept piling up birdies in the afternoon. He ran out the match on the 30th hole, as he won three holes in succession.

The $3,500 victory places Hogan second among the money winners on the tournament circuit. He has won $13,897 this year.

Like Father, Like Son In This Mat Family

WINNIPEG, May 26.—(CP)—Canadian wrestling history will be in the making when the combined Canadian wrestling championships and Olympic trials are staged at Toronto May 27-28. A 22-year-old Winnipegger—Don Trifunovic—will be striving to emulate his father's feat of representing Canada in the Olympic games.

Jimmy Trifunovic, now 44 and retired from competitive wrestling since an appendix operation in 1933, was one of the greatest grapplers produced in Canada. He fought for the Dominion in 1928 and 1932 Olympics, 1930 British Empire Games and the 1935 United States championship. Besides, he reigned king of Canada's bantamweight wrestlers for 11 years from 1923 to 1934—when there were plenty of tough small men in the mat game.

His most successful year in international competition was 1930 when he won the Empire bantamweight crown at Hamilton. Veteran matmen say Jimmy should have won the Olympic title at Amsterdam in 1928—being beaten by lady luck and not by the ultimate champion to whom he lost his only decision of the games. The 1926 U.S. tourney also saw Jimmy at the top, being ousted in the semi-finals by the ultimate winner.

Don, a five-foot 10-inch welterweight, has followed in his father's footsteps before emulating his father's mat feats. However, Jimmy is confident he will do it.

"He is a better wrestler now than I ever was... He has more natural ability, more strength, more speed. I just admit I may be prejudiced, I think he could be one of the best wrestlers in the world if he had a steady dose of tough competition and the chance to devote enough time to serious training."

Wrestling came into Don's life early. "I guess the first time Don was in the ring was when he was about five years old," he said. "I was wrestling on a card when we were living in Regina and was getting pretty bad. He beat me. Don was at the bout with his mother and suddenly he climbed over the ropes and started fighting in the ring. I guess he figured I needed help and I did too."

Strictly Personal

By Jim Algeo
Pat James is a mighty fine baritone who had plenty on the pitch while serving overseas with the Canadian Army Show during the Second World War. You just haven't heard anything unless you have 'tuned in' when Pat turns on the vocal 'Boys, Ol' Man River, and more...'

And how come, you ask, does a singer like Pat, who's a page? Well put up a chair and listen.

All Pat's 'glor' isn't centred around opera and musical shows... He also has a starry background in the Old Country and Canada.

James, who posted a mean football for Martin Collingwood's Alberta champion North Side Legion last season, first felt the lure of the soccer turf when a youngster.

He later hooked up with Mertry Town, a first division Welsh League pro football team. It was then that he was forced to make one of the biggest decisions of his life... to follow either soccer or singing.

He decided to stick with sport, but later the urge to give with the voice won out. He moved to Canada and came to Edmonton in 1930.

Pat's biggest singing thrill came while the boys were 'going' Amsterdam, Holland... According to James the group was taken to do the show before such famous celebrities as Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, General Simons and I. H. H. Vander.

Field Marshal Montgomery, and the Field Marshal himself. James was in the army for four and one-half years, during which he toured all camps in eastern Canada, England and Europe.

He once sang for three weeks, no act continuing, for General Worthington during a recruiting drive.

Pat will portray Count Arnhem in the Edmonton Civic Opera's fall production of Bohemian Girl. Pat is a big, handsome fellow who stars with Oliver St. Pats of the Edmonton and District Football League. He can make with the sweet music.

6 EDMONTON BULLETIN, Wednesday, May 26, 1948

TOJO, FORMERLY OWNED BY ex-Premier Tojo and now top ranking horse in the U.S. Army's First Cavalry Division stable in Tokyo, talks over his prospects in a benefit race with a friend.

Two months from now Olympic paeantry will sweep across an English countryside in the first world jamboree since 1936. No one can say at the moment whether Edmonton will be represented when they run up the Olympic flag in Wembley Stadium. But at the moment Gord Higginson is grooming 25 competitors for the Dominion trials to be held in Montreal, Winnipeg and Vancouver next month.

Among the locals who may attain Olympic standards are Pat Walker, Jim Macrae, Nick Lupachuk, Doris Nurf, Mona Creighton, Sylvia Calder and Pat Gunn.

Edith Skitch, perhaps the best lady athlete developed here since the palmy days of the Edmonton Grads, will be a leading contender. The Mighty Mouse will have her work cut out for her if she is to get by such fine female sprinters as Tami Gertman from Montreal and Millie Cheater of Vancouver.

In addition Norm Gibson, former mile relay man with Stanford University, is coaching Ron Hooper for a crack at Olympic weight laurels. Hooper is a member of the Edmonton Police Force and just about tops in weight events here.

Higginson's athletes campaign under the Edmonton Polar Bear banner. Chief concern of the organization is lack of funds to send the Edmontonians for the trials in either Winnipeg on June 24 or Vancouver on July 1.

Alberta has never contributed to the Olympic fund and is therefore not eligible to receive money from the central 'kitty.' Latest effort to obtain necessary capital to send the Polar Bears travelling will be made Wednesday when Gibson approaches the Alberta government.

Precision Dunks Legion 9-4 in Curtain-Dropper

By Dick Beddoes

The saying goes that 'Henry Singer has a suit to fit you.'

He also has a fastball club in the Senior Men's League, which received its baptism under fire in the Kingsway meadows Tuesday night. More specifically the Singers were under fire from the Mighty Men of Moose to the tune of 11-4.

In the second half of a twin bill Precision Machine upset Legion 178 9-4.

Men of distinction, representing high points in various athletic societies, make up the Singers, which are not to be confused with a mixed chorus or the sewing machines by the same name. There is, for instance, Mac Colville of the ice lanes, Jim Macrae from track and basketball, Dutchy Van Deelen the hockeyist, and Jerry Seawright, a former western Canadian football player of repute, to mention a few.

Butter Hurls 5-Hitter
Present keeper of the Singers is Sammy Shekter, and he may indeed bring out the full fastball talent of his 'name' stars.

Tuesday it didn't work out that way. Bill Butter stood the clothiers on their ear with a five-hitter while his mates disturbed three Singer burlers with 12 safeties. Moose killed three in the first inning, merrily with seven in the fourth, and lapped on one in the sixth.

Duke Ellis, Bob Meyers, Phil Myers, and Butter each collected two hits for Moose. Stu McNeill socked a pair in a losing game.

Jack Jackowski allowed Legion 178 five hits in the nightcap. His supporting PM cast touched Gene Sakowsky for six, and profited considerably on half-donned Legion errors. Jackowski led the hitters with two for four and whiffed five batsmen.

SCORE BY INNINGS:
Singers..... 000 004 0-4 5 3
Moose..... 300 701 x-11 12 1

Tom O'Flaherty Up to His Ears in Baseball

Tom O'Flaherty will bet you all day that being high man on a baseball totem pole is no easy task.

The 28-year-old RCAF veteran is president of the Intermediate Baseball League which opens the 1948 season on May 31. Right now O'Flaherty is busier than the mother of triplets on wash day as he arranges a doubleheader inaugural at Renfrew Park next Monday.

Six teams—CVO, Horse Hills, Texaco Oilers, Hudson Ray, RCAF, and Westmont—comprise the intermediate wheel. Each team will play 30 games during the 60-game schedule. Monday contests are billed for Renfrew Park and regular playing dates are slated for home grounds of the clubs on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

O'Flaherty has called an umpires' meeting in the USO for Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. All interested in officiating intermediate ball are urged to attend.

The president will also meet with league directors Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in the USO to iron out final opening day business.

Assistants to O'Flaherty in various capacities include Jack Rilly of the Recreation Commission, Doug Clark, Don Metcalfe, Stan Ellis, John Hassock and George Morie.

Wally Ursulak will be Lou Hlat's pitching coach when his CNR freight gang collide with RCAF at Clark's Star on Wednesday. The game is scheduled for 6:45 p.m.

Border Town Amateurs Assist Cancer Fund

LLOYDMINSTER, May 26.—Lloydminster's amateur entertainers were out in full force on Wednesday evening to assist in the fight against cancer when the UCT-CJNB guest night show was broadcast from the Rio theatre in the border town over the North Battleford radio station.

Headed by Jack Coatsdon, the popular manager of CJNB, a number of funsters and assistants came down to put over the best radio show emanating from the oil and gas town. The magnificence of the interior of the new theatre was a delight to the city visitors and they were further pleased as the evening wore on with the quality of the program put on by the border town amateurs.

While the total amount of money raised towards the fight against cancer has not yet been announced, as mail donations will be received for a week following the broadcast, it is quite evident that the fund received quite a boost. While there was a number of vocal numbers on the program the type of song and the age of the artists created a variety that was pleasing to the 400 that attended the performance.

Following were the artists taking part: Mary Sheryk, Streamstown, solo; Cyril Gee, Lloydminster, violin solo; Amund Guyon, Lloydminster, solo; Eleanor Gee, Lloydminster, solo; Jean Martin and Mary Sheryk, guitar and vocal; George Morledge, Lloydminster, solo; Betty Evans, Lloydminster, solo; Shirley Milligan, Lloydminster, solo; Donna Mae Erickson, Lloydminster, solo (this little tot is only six years old but got up there and did her stuff like a regular trouper); Donald Fullerton, Neilburg, mouth organ and guitar duet; Dorothy Morledge, Lloydminster, solo; Shirley Deauville and Myrtle Siebel, duet; Mary Tarpacky, solo; Michael Hall, Lloydminster, solo.

Official Visits

Hairy Hill Elks

HAIRY HILL, May 26.—Forty attended the recent banquet meeting of Hairy Hill Elks' Lodge, Cliff Conway of Lloydminster, deputy grand exalted ruler, made an official visit.

The recent dance sponsored by Elks resulted in raising of $125.00. Dubuc's orchestra supplied the music.

Olds Fair Board Changes Prize List

The Directors of the Olds Agricultural Society met last week to discuss changes in the prize list for this year's fair. The ladies department assisted.

Their officers for the year are as follows:

President, Mrs. J. A. Dodd; 1st vice-president, Mrs. J. Kilpatrick; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. C. A. Leach.

Directors: Mesdames R. Hammel Sr., C. B. Jensen, Eber Frost, L. S. Fisher, A. Hammel, Warren Smith, Pete Miquelon, S. A. Hauchin, A. S. Chamberlain.

Vera Nickaruk, Lloydminster, solo; Allan Gee, Lloydminster, solo; Paul Dapone, Lloydminster, solo; F. Coleman and Pleas Bowen, Kitscoty, violin and guitar duet; Bert Hill, Lloydminster, guitar and vocal.

VERMILION SCOUTS GIVEN HALL BY ELKS

VERMILION, May 26.—Boy Scouts' new hall was officially opened on Sunday. 200 citizens were in attendance. Vermilion Elks donated the hall.

Out of town officials participating were deputy provincial scout commissioner, R. Hugh of Camrose, executive commissioner H. Holloway, Edmonton, deputy executive commissioner Gordon, Edmonton and R. L. King, member of Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts.

Addresses were given by B. Pilkie, Chairman Elks' canvassing committee. Commissioner Holloway presented Exalted Ruler H. Powell of Vermilion Elks' Lodge with a "Thanks Plaque" for donating the hall, and Mr. Powell expressed his pleasure and gratitude and promised to hang the plaque in the Lodge room.

Scout Master Ross was in charge of the Scouts and Scout Master A. B. King handed the Cubes.

guarding the door, turned the key in the lock, handed the key to the local scout master and invited Cubes, Scouts and public to enter.

New Tea Room

HANNA, May 26.—Chin Lee, proprietor of the Liberty Cafe, has announced the opening of a new tea room.

A homelike atmosphere prevails in the room and is an ideal place for small wedding receptions, anniversary or birthday teas as well as a pleasant place to serve tea for friends.

CALENDAR GIRL from Tralee, Eire, is Violet Nolan, plucked from obscurity by three of the foremost illustrators in the U.S. to be an airline's calendar girl for 1948. She is called the "typical of Irish womanhood" and will have a screen test during her week's stay in Hollywood.

FLYING CLUB SEEKS MEMBERS

OLDS, May 26.—Now that the Netok airfield is again in good condition the Mountain View Flying Club of Olds is looking for new members. Planes are up from Calgary on alternate Wednesdays and Saturdays.

The Calgary Flying Club has purchased some new types of aircraft and now have Aerona, Tiger, Moth, Cornell, Fleet Canuck and Aerocoupe.

Bob Heaton, of the local club recently passed his private pilot's examination.

Weather Helping Bellis Seeding

BELLIS, May 26.—Mike Hunchak, who lives 8 miles southwest of Bellis, reports that all of his seeding is finished. Some of the seeding was done with horses. He has just over 80 acres in crop, 35 in summer fallow; timber covers the rest of his half-section.

About 10 percent of all coarse grains had been sown through this district Friday, with a very small amount of wheat. Seeding continues to be held up on most acreage on account of the wet soil conditions. Two hot days and drying winds are helping to dry the soil. It is expected that seeding will be general next week.

Pastures are making great growth. There has been a decline in stock shipments this past week. Thermometers stood at 90 during the warm part of Friday.

Annual Festival Has 90 Entries

BEAVERLODGE, May 26.—Annual music and drama festival for this district was held this week in the Community Center here, and proved a great success. Approximately 90 entries were on the program. The dance hall was used for musical numbers and the theatre for those of drama and physical education.

Adjudicators were Mrs. A. Schrag, vocal music; Mr. D. Blackie, dramatic; Mr. E. B. St. Jean of Kyroft, instrumental music; and Mr. H. E. Byron, R. St. B. Rd. of Grande Prairie physical education.

All adjudicators commented upon the fine talent displayed and the careful training which was shown by the numbers presented. A grand concert in the evening drew a large crowd and was very much appreciated by all who attended.

The steeple of Boston's Old North Church has a chime of eight bells oldest in America. The bells were rung there in 1774.

Red Deer Carnival! Draws Big Crowds

Audrey Doyle Crowned Queen;

Pet Parade Headed by Skunk

RED DEER, May 26.—May 24 was a big day in Red Deer with record-breaking crowds taking in the many attractions of the Red Deer Rotary Club's carnival. Save for a shower of a few minutes duration in the evening the weather was perfect.

PRICE OF MILK UP AT DAWSON

DAWSON CREEK, B.C., May 26.—The price of milk was raised one cent a quart here on May 25, when house-to-house deliveries began. Because of the shortage of milk and of delivery trucks, the service will be given only to part of the village.

Those who go out for their milk will be able to get it for the old price of 15 cents a quart, according to present plans.

Nursing Graduates Guests Of Alumnae

LAMONT, May 26.—Alumnae Association of the Lamont public hospital school of nursing, gave a luncheon in honor of the 1948 graduation class on Saturday, May 22, in the Crescent, Lamont.

A years subscription to the Canadian Nurse accompanied by a yellow rose was presented by Miss L. Fenlie to each member of the class.

Mrs. Ringwood, who graciously entertained the party with an original reading on "Alberta" was presented with a corsage of gardenias by Mrs. J. L. Cleary.

Mrs. Cooper, superintendent of nurses, who has been closely associated with the Alumnae Association in the capacity of new editor and who leaves for the U.S.A. soon, was presented with a corsage of gardenias and sweetheart roses by Mrs. A. Cowan.

There were 64 members and guests present. Other guests being members of the hospital and medical faculty and their wives and the Rev. and Mrs. Kirk.

Camrose Electors Vote On Friday

CAMROSE, May 26.—Camrose Electors go to the poll on Friday, May 28. At that time they will have to decide on two issues, they will have to vote, yes or no, on the by-law authorizing the Town Council to incur an indebtedness of $80,000.00 for the construction of concrete sidewalks.

Voters will also vote for one of the two men who are standing for the election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Councillor Allan C. Ernst. The man who will be elected will hold office until the next regular election in 1949. The two men standing for election are Mr. Frank Mohler and Mr. James Dabbs. Mr. Mohler is a well known local farmer and Mr. Dabbs owns and operates a local furniture store.

Easton Seeks Support For Yellowhead Pass

An automobile jaunt from Edmonton to Vancouver will be 300 miles shorter if the Yellowhead Pass route of the Trans-Canada Highway is built, according to Reg. Easton.

Mr. Easton was guest speaker at a joint meeting of the Gyro and Comopolitan Clubs in the Macdonald hotel Tuesday, and discussed the possibilities of the highway route to the coast.

Calgary, he said, would be only 50 miles farther from Vancouver by way of the Yellowhead Pass route and much of the difficult driving on mountainous roads would be eliminated.

The Yellowhead route follows valleys almost the entire 140 miles through the mountains from Jasper to Blue River and the altitude is 1,700 feet lower than that of the Kicking Horse Pass and 800 feet lower than that of the Crow's Nest Pass.

For these reasons, Mr. Easton said, the engineering task of building the highway is a simple one. This route, he added, was chosen by engineers in 1970 as the easiest route over the Rockies but was abandoned for a more southerly right of way because of political reasons.

Mr. Easton also related his personal experiences in travelling over the route in a jeep last summer.

Gyro president Wes van Dusen presided, and Comopolitan president John Norrington introduced the speaker.

Go-Ahead Signal Given For Three Big Projects

Jasper Place HSA To Name School

Jasper place Home and School Association will be asked to suggest a name for the new public school being built in the Westgrove subdivision.

Members of the Edmonton Public School Board feel that confusion will be caused with Westgrove and Westmont schools if it was called Westgrove.

Decision will likely be reached at the next meeting of the board if suggestions are made.

exercised by the First Task Fleet at sea between San Diego and Long Beach.

City Will Gravel Street To School

Roadway conditions leading to Eastwood school will be improved this year.

City council Tuesday were informed by city commissioners that a fully signed petition had been received from residents of 81 street requesting the street be gravelled from 118 to 120 avenue.

They said the work would be done this year.

Recently pupils at the Eastwood school petitioned the city council to designate a sidewalk on 81 street for bicycle traffic.

The disrepair condition of the roadway leading to the school was given as the reason for the request.

Commissioners reported to council they could not accede to this request as it would establish a precedent, and also would make the city liable for any accident that might occur.

The graveling of the roadway, in their opinion, would solve this traffic problem.

Three construction projects totaling approximately $612,570 were given the go-ahead signal by city council Tuesday.

Legislative action by city council Tuesday cleared the way for the erection of an auto court here at an estimated cost of $200,000.

The court-to-be known as the Linda Auto Court—will be erected by an Edmonton syndicate between 130 and 140 streets and Stony Plain road and 103 avenue.

Recently the property in this area was rezoned to permit the erection of the camp and Tuesday the city council agreed to the closing of the lane in the area.

COMMENCE AT ONCE

Work on the project will commence immediately.

Council also approved the expenditure of $212,570 under the first schedule of local improvements for 1948. City Commissioner D. B. Menzies said that further construction scheduled would be submitted to council in the near future.

The expenditures include $146,560 for construction of approximately 11 miles of bituminous sidewalks and two miles of concrete sidewalks and the spending of $37,352 in land grading and graveling.

Council's recent decision to exempt 88 per cent of flankage will apply to these projects.

The third project authorized by council was the construction of the substructure of the low level bridge second traffic artery.

Contract for this project was let to the Poole Construction Co., Edmonton, on a cost plus basis and a fixed fee of $18,000. The estimated cost of the project is $100,000.

NOT CONSIDERED

A second tender, that of the R. A. Blythe Co., Toronto, for $215,800.50 was not considered as no guarantee to finish the project by a stipulated date was contained in the tender.

A report from P. L. Pringle, consultant engineer on bridge revisions, was received as information by council.

Commissioner D. B. Menzies told aldermen that negotiations were being carried on by Mr. Pringle with the Rockland Pacific railway in connection with the conversion plans for the bridge.

He intimated a special meeting of council would be called to deal with the proposed revisions when decision had been received from the railway officials.

Shriners Meet Here In June

The summer meeting of nobles of the Mystic Shrine in Montana and Alberta will be held in Edmonton June 25 and 26.

Approximately 300 are expected from Montana as well as 200 from Alberta.

The visitors will arrive in a motorcade which will stop over in Calgary June 24, arriving in Edmonton the next day.

Uniformed lodges will parade down Jasper June 26 at 10:30 a.m. with two bands.

Potential Frank Fulton will preside at a Potentates' banquet in the Macdonald hotel the evening of June 26 which will be attended by more than 750 Shriners and guests.

The motorcade will go to Jasper National Park June 27, and then to Banff and Calgary before returning to their homes.

United Church Opens Annual Conference

CITY TO BEAR PART OF COST FOR RATE BRIEF

Grant of $5,000 was made Tuesday by city council to the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce toward the cost of preparing a brief for submission to a Royal Commission should such be appointed, to enquire into equalization of freight rates.

F. G. Waspas, CA, president of the Chamber of Commerce, told aldermen the Chamber also was making a grant of $5,000, and that other boards of trade in the province were assisting in financing the preparation of the brief.

He said the equalization of freight rates was the most important proposition that faces western Canada in recent years.

Equalization of the rates was particularly important to Edmonton as this city was at the apex of the discriminatory rate.

He said the chambers of commerce and boards of trade were co-operating with the provincial government in the preparation of a brief.

City May Purchase Road Equipment

A large crane and a bulldozer may be purchased by the city as a result of J. D. A. Macdonald's trip to Whitehorse last week.

The assistant city engineer reported Tuesday that negotiations for the purchase of these implements was proceeding.

He added that it was not possible to obtain any road machinery at the northern centre.

Teacher Group Elect Officers

A new name has been chosen for the instructors of Industrial Arts and Technical Electives in Alberta. At a recent meeting in Calgary, members voted to be known in the future as Industrial Education Teachers of Alberta.

Elected to the executive were: J. P. Liebe, Lethbridge, president; W. E. Robinson, Edmonton, vice-president; A. E. Kuehbach, Calgary, secretary-treasurer.

An executive committee of Hal Whitney, Medicine Hat; G. R. Calhoun, Calgary; J. Pollock, Red Deer; B. Marsh, Leduc; W. W. Parker and R. Hoover, Didsbury, was appointed.

Board Asks $2,008,100

Edmonton Public School Board will expend $2,008,100 during 1948. The figure was presented in the budget brought down at a meeting of the board Tuesday.

The amount will be asked for in tax demands.

The tax demand is $149,432 higher than 1947, but due to the increase in the assessment roll, the demand will be produced by the same mill rate as last year.

The school board receives 29 mills of the total mill rate. The board's demand for 1948 is $382,200, but $200,200 is made up through government grants, non-resident fees, rental of schools and transfer revenue surplus.

At the meeting, a by-law relating to the issue of debentures of the Edmonton School District No. 7 of the Province of Alberta was given first and second readings. Third reading will be on Friday at 5 p.m.

Thirty-eight teachers who have been serving a probationary period were transferred to the permanent staff and it was decided to have 37 teachers, all of whom were appointed in 1947, continue on "substitute" contracts.

Appointment of Loran Nichols as principal of Bennett school for the term September, 1948, to June, 1949, was approved by the board.

Mr. Nichols is at present teaching at Highlands intermediate school.

Prominent Vet Dies In City

Dr. J. G. Cruikshank, well-known western veterinarian and a member of the R.N.W.M.P. in the 1890's, died in Edmonton Monday.

Dr. Cruikshank, who lived at 1017 83 avenue, was 82 years of age.

After retiring from the service, he attended veterinary college in Ontario and practiced at Waskada, Manitoba, for 18 years.

He later moved to Deloraine and then to Selkirk, where he retired in 1940.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. F. H. Newcombe, Edmonton.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. today.

Superintendent Says Many City Visitors

Edmonton's zoo is due for a face lifting. City council Tuesday instructed the city commissioners to report on improvements designed to eliminate conditions complained of by the Alberta Humane Society.

The Society complained of the deplorable conditions under which animals and birds are living at the zoo.

It was suggested that new living quarters be provided for the bears and coyotes, or that these animals be shipped to Jasper National Park.

Jack Myler, acting superintendent of the parks department, told council thousands of residents visited the zoo each week-end, and that many district residents also visited Borden park to see the animals and birds.

Myler reported that conditions at the Zoo had been improved.

GRANT TAG DAY

Permission was given to the Edmonton Home for Ex-Servicemen's Children to hold a tag day, the commissioners to arrange the date.

REFERRED Sent to the bylaws committee for consideration a resolution from the Edmonton Property Owners' Association that money grants for civic recreation and cultural activities be referred to a civic official appointed to deal with such grants.

SEEK REPORT

Referred to the commissioners for report a communication from A. L. Marks, Edmonton barrister, suggesting that street cars and trolley buses be equipped with cards showing routes and transfer points.

GRANT LEASE

Adopted recommendation of the finance committee to grant a lease to the Glenora Skating and Tennis Club Ltd., on eight lots on 120 street north of Jasper avenue with an option to purchase 50 per cent of the assessment at the time the option is taken up.

DELEGATES

Appointed Mayor Harry Ainlay and Ald. Fred J. Mitchell as the city's delegates to the conference of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities to be held at Halifax June 22 to 24 inclusive.

CONCURRED

Many Showers Means Duplicated Presents

By Bea Thrifty

Wedding bells are clanging merrily these sunny days—and the shops are filled with women buying shower presents, wedding gifts and bride-elites finishing their trousseau shopping.

Brides of today are feted at so many showers that many of their gifts are duplicated.

Things such as towels, linens, glasses are appreciated in any quantity—and are always useful.

But when a blushing bride receives half a dozen pyrex casseroles—that's about four too many.

It's harder to know what to buy for a shower present... something practical, attractive and not too expensive is hard to find.

Suggestions for party-makers: When making tartlets fill the unbaked shells with uncooked beans or rice and they will hold their shape, or take the party on the outside of eustard cups or pie tins; or fit an extra pan inside the pie crust and bake.

Now that the cheaper cuts of meat are popular with pennywise householder—a special meat tenderizer is in order. You can buy the gadget for 35c. and it consists of a mallet with a ridged surface. You pound the meat with this— presto! its tender as a true diet mignon.

More value in the 85c line is a cylindrical cookie tube. This has a series of different outlet designs.

You put the cookie dough in the container—choose your design—and push the dough through several designs—easy to use.

Every red-blooded Canadian hoo-man-bein' loves heron meringue pie—just lemon are a couple of variations make this delectable even harder to resist.

Sprinkle meringue with shredded coconut before popping into oven to brown; or spread strawberries over bottom of pie before pouring in the lemon filling.

And while we're in this sweetness and light frame of mind here's a goodie to serve the girls at that afternoon bridge party.

Dice half a dozen cranberries with a sharp knife; slice two bananas; add ¼ cup sugar or 2 tablespoons honey and ¼ cup coconut; mix and cover with 1 cup strawberries (fresh-frozen do the job well).

Chill, and pile into sherbet glasses to serve.

Nimble knitters will be pleased to hear of the new deal with diamond sock wool.

Wool for plaid or diamond socks, soft, fluffy 4-ply wool, comes packaged in the just right quantities for any size up to 12—for $1.35.

This eliminates the leftover wool after using a small bit for one diamond—therefore eliminates unnecessary cost.

Good plan this.

Unflamorous but a decidedly practical shower gift would be a collection of brushes for kitchen use. Bottle brush, floor brush, vegetable brush, pan brush... and many others can be bought in exchange for a few paltry pennies.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Feeling of Insecurity Results in Temper Flare

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

When a child feels helpless and frustrated by circumstances, or by people, he resorts to a temper tantrum.

What other course has he? It is second nature for parents to want to dominate children and mold them to their own standards.

They use every method to achieve their purposes:

They talk, argue, use force or punishment. When the child, whose desires to act in his own way are often as strong as the parent's, finds himself in a helpless net of coercion, he flies into a rage and screams and kicks.

When a mother knows what forms a temper tantrum it seems pretty foolish for her to use her only weapon the policy of ignoring the tantrum. A child who is deeply about the attitude of not being able to act as he feels it is right for him to act, he feels it is right for him to act, he feels it is right for him to act.

Temper tantrums are sometimes violent symptoms of wrong parental treatment. The first thing that a parent should do is to ask themselves if what they are doing that makes it necessary for the child to resort to such behavior to get notice.

Temper tantrums are prevalent during the ages from 18 months to three years. This is the time when the child is becoming aware of his own desires and his powerful need to have them fulfilled. No one argues that a child is to be allowed to do everything he wants to do, just because he wants it. That would not even be pleasing to the child, as he finds security in guidance. But, it is also true that unless he has some opportunity to act the way he wants to act, he is going to be against everything the parent wants him to do. His life must be a balance of things he can do and things he can't do. Then he becomes respectful of guidance and discipline.

It is only when it is completely one-sided and only the parent's wishes are being fulfilled, that he is driven to dramatically, emotional behavior to advertise his woes. It is a wise parent who will call a halt and ask herself how she can improve her own behavior. She can then expect to improve the child's.

Our lastest No. 54, "Temper Tantrums," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of the Bulletin.

WHY GROW OLD

Bare-Midriff Swim Suits Need Minute Waistlines

By Josephine Lowman

Many women who gained weight during the past year but who felt fairly slim in their winter clothing, received a shock when they tried on summer dresses.

There is no doubt about it, pastels and whites and coatless dresses make us look heavier! These simply cry for a slim silhouette. I haven't even mentioned play clothes and swim suits yet!

Many a woman will sit by the stream of the sea or the lake or the pool this summer because she feels that she will not look well in a bathing suit and is too vain to wear one when she does not. This is a great loss in fun and health and companionship!

These figure faults can be changed with exercise and diet when needed. Type of suit you buy also makes a difference. If you have fat about the waist, in fact, unless you are very slim and through the torso, buy a one-piece suit. The two-piece midriff type will not look well on you. If you do have a slim midriff, you can wear them well and your figure is apt to look even prettier in this style because the one-piece suit has tendency to flatten the bustline. This is especially true of the woman who is long waisted, she must watch this when she buys her swim suit.

Only those who are quite sleek will look attractive in the closely-molded trunks. If you are a little full over the hip line or the abdomen, the skirt type will look best. This does not have to be a full style but a one-piece suit with trunks underneath the closely fitting, overlapping material of the skirt. Some material of the skirt. Some material of the skirt.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Immature Teen-Agers Advised Not to Marry

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Do you think that a boy and girl of 17 are too young to marry? We have been engaged a year and are planning to marry this summer when I complete school.

He is everything I want in a husband, but, Miss Dix, he is so young.

Do you think he will start running around after we get married, or do you believe a boy of 17 can settle down and take care of a home and family?

ANSWER: Nobody can prophesy about how a marriage will turn out, but why trust your life's happiness to luck? For certainly it is little short of a miracle when a couple of teen-agers make a go of their marriage.

Surely you and your Boy Friend care enough for each other to be willing to put your love to the test of a little waiting.

You must be intelligent enough to know that at your age even the law does not think that you are mature enough to know what you are doing.

would not permit you to buy a house, or make any sort of business commitment, unless you had someone to sponsor you and take the responsibility.

So, at least, wait until you are old enough to know what you are doing before you take the most important step in your life.

There are many reasons why a girl should not be in such a hurry to marry. One is that if she marries when she is still a kid, she has no planning of life.

She is tied down with work and responsibility and babies and, like as not, what she thought was a faithful husband, no one knows. The bridegroom doesn't know himself. His intentions may be ever so honorable, but he is at the growing stage and his tastes change with his growth and he may find that he has nothing in common with you.

So be sensible. Wait until you grow up before you marry.

Ballet To Perform At Toronto Fair

WINNIPEG, May 25.—(CP)—International recognition will be accorded the Winnipeg Ballet Company, it was learned today.

An invitation has been received from the Dominion government to perform before representatives of 60 countries at the first international trade fair in Toronto May 31, David H. Yedden, manager of the Winnipeg Ballet Company said.

Fifteen Winnipeggers, including Director Gwendolyn Lloyd and Mr. Yedden, will make the trip which Mr. Yedden described as "a golden opportunity."

It also was disclosed that the federal government has secured the services of a prominent British movie organization to produce the show.

The Winnipeg Ballet Company promoted and participated in the first national ballet festival, held here last month.

BRIDGE

Know Real Meaning Of Common Terms

By William E. McKenney

This is the last of three articles giving you a glossary of the terms used in bridge.

Revoke—to fail, when able to do so, to follow suit, or to lead or play as directed when playing a partner.

Ruff—to trump a lead of a plain suit. A cross ruff occurs when each partner leads a suit which the other can ruff. See Overruff.

Run (a suit)—When holding two or more winning cards of a suit to lead them out.

Secondary bid—a bid made by a player who has previously passed. See Saw. A cross ruff.

Sequence—Two or more cards in proximate relation as to denomination.

Shift—to bid or lead a different suit.

Short Suit—One in which the player originally held three cards or less.

Signal—An irregular but conventional play intended to convey information.

Solid Suit—One of such length and strength as to be practically sure of winning every trick in that suit.

Stopped (suit)—A guarded suit.

Take-out—The overbidding (in a different suit) of partner when no adverse bid has intervened.

Tense—A card with the next higher rank but one or the next lower rank one of the same suit.

Maine—A card which is neither a king-jack, doubleton, ace-queen, imperfect tenace, ace-jack, king-ten.

Throwing the lead—Playing a card with a number of another player to take the trick.

Top of Nothing—Highest card of a holding which contains no card of that suit higher than the mine.

Two-suit—A hand containing two suits both strong enough for an original bid.

Unblock—Getting rid of high cards so as to avoid being left in the lead.

Underplay—to duck when following suit.

Underricks—Tricks won by the opponents beyond their book.

Vulnerable—Having won a game (or more).

Yarborough—A hand which contains no card higher than a nine.

B.C. Police Extend Search For Baker On Murder Charge

VANCOUVER, May 19—(CP)—

Provincial police Tuesday issued a warrant charging 35-year-old Percy Jean Baker with the murder of his waitress, Anna Jurek.

Simultaneously, the search for Baker was accelerated. Border points were warned to check United States-bound trains and automobiles.

The body of slender Mrs. Baker, about 30, was found in her blood-soaked bed Friday by her three children. She had been struck on the head with a hammer, stabbed with a pair of scissors and strangled with the inner handle and piece of cloth applied in tourist postures.

Vermilion Greets Governor-General

Town Celebrates Gala Day In Welcoming Alexander

VERMILION, May 26.—Tuesday was Alexander Day for the people of Vermilion.

The entire town celebrated a gala day welcoming Viscount Alexander, governor-general of Canada, and Lady Alexander, who paid a five-hour visit to this eastern Alberta centre.

Governor-General Alexander dedicated the new $15,000 Vermilion Canadian Legion hall during ceremonies under a blazing afternoon sun.

Hall was dedicated by Alexander in memory to those of your community who have paid the supreme sacrifice.

Population of Vermilion more than doubled for the day of celebration, as an estimated 2,500 visitors flocked to the town to see Canada's governor-general and his Lady.

Viscount Alexander and his party arrived at Vermilion airport aboard an RCAF DC3 about 11 a.m. Tuesday.

HIGHLIGHTS OF VISIT

Here are the highlights of the busy afternoon spent by the vice-regal party.

Investigative service at the Vermilion fair grounds saw seven Alberta war veterans receive awards for meritorious war service.

His Excellency presented the Commander of the Order of the Empire to Brig. J. C. Jefferson, DSO, EDC.

Others receiving awards were Maj. Thomas B. Nash, of Edmonton, the DSO, Capt. Kurt G. Surbeck, of Edmonton, the OBE; Lieut. A. T. Falls, DSO, CBO, of the RCN; E. A. Morrey, of Edmonton, the DSO; Sgt. Longard Williams, of Lloydminster, the BEM; Cpl. A. A. Lawrence, of Claiborne, the MM.

SCOUT MEDALS

Medals of merit for outstanding service to the Boy Scout movement were received by Leslie Pilcher and George Audley, both of Edmonton, and A. H. Harold, of Lloydminster.

Viscount Alexander presented a guard of honor, comprised of the Royal Edmonton Regiment, reserve army company of Edmonton, B Company from Vegreville, and A Company from Vermilion. Capt. William Martin, Vegreville, was guard commander.

His Excellency also inspected ranks of veterans, Boy Scouts, Sea Scouts, Air Cadets, and Girl Guides.

Vice-regal party toured the town and district led by Mayor J. W. G. Morrison, of Vermilion.

Luncheon for the visiting party was held in the provincial school of agriculture.

Both Viscount and Lady Alexander spoke briefly at the luncheon.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Premier Ernest Manning, bringing greetings on behalf of the provincial government, welcomed the Governor-General to the province, and said that he regretted the visit was not an extended one.

Toast to the King during the luncheon was led by George Martin, acting president of the Vermilion Legion branch.

Vice-regal went western for a while Tuesday afternoon. Party was given a short tour of the four horse buckboard, escorted by cowboys.

Governor-General and Lady Alexander received guests in the new Legion hall for a brief period after dedication ceremonies.

Lady Alexander was presented roses by Miss Ruth Beatty on behalf of the town of Vermilion.

From the Legion hall, the vice-regal party left for the Vermilion airport.

Streets leading to the field, and the field itself, were jammed with thousands of people. We were eager to pay respects to the Governor-General and his Lady.

The party left for Saskatoon at 4 p.m.

New Steamship For Coast Service

GLASGOW, May 26.—(CP)—The new Princess Marguerite was launched today for the famous Victoria-Vancouver-Seattle triangle run, replacing the steamship of the same name lost in the Mediterranean during the war while serving as a troopship.

The new 365-foot vessel with a complement of 23 boats was built for Canadian Pacific Steamships' British Columbia coastal service by the Fairfield Shipbuilding and Engineering Company of Glasgow. She will have accommodation for 2,000 passengers.

Her predecessor was taken over by a sister ship, the Princess Kathleen, as a troopship in 1940 and was torpedoed in the following year en route to Cyprus. The Kathleen returned to the coast service last year.

Veteran-Monitor Road Work Starts

CONSORT, May 26.—Highway engineers and timekeeper, Capt. Thode Bros., contractors of Saskatoon, have arrived in Consort. They are their machinery soon and travelling will be done on Highway No. 12 from Victoria to Monitor.

Canadian Coast Lines announced daily service to Consort Wednesday, May 19, after having to suspend operations for six weeks due to bad road conditions.

Stablehand Dies

TORONTO, May 26.—(CP)—Police of suburban Etobicoke said today that Ronald Lawrence, 16, of Winnipeg, a stablehand at Long Branch race track, died yesterday of a cerebral hemorrhage.

HE'S ARRESTED FOR GIVING AWAY MONEY!

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 26.—(AP)—John N. Shaw, a farmer, was arrested yesterday for leaving money at Harvard.

Police said he had pushed $2 bills under 19 dormitory doorways before his contributions were ended.

The 60-year-old man was charged with disturbing the peace and ordered to hospital for observation.

"I'm interested in Harvard. I thought the boys might need some money for their summer vacations. I just wanted to help."

250 Reds Beheaded By Chinese Gov't. Troops

CHINGCHAU, China, May 26.—(AP)—A gruesome story of the massacre of 250 Chinese Communist prisoners by national troops was told today by Gen. Ma Wen-Ting.

Half the prisoners, he said, were beheaded, with great heads carried by his fierce Moslem and Buddhist troops. The others were killed with hand grenades.

Without emotion, the grim-visaged Ma described the mass killing carried out last week at Ninghsien village near here.

"We chopped off one head after another with our big broadswords," Ma said. "We finished the others off with hand grenades."

The prisoners were part of 1,500 taken at Ninghsien where they fled after National troops routed them near Nian.

The general, deputy chief of staff of the National army, said an uprising among the prisoners caused the massacre.

"While we were sorting out Communist regulars from conscripted peasants," he said, "the Communists started a rioting. They shouted 'Mao Tse-Tung' (Chinese Communist leader's name) and 'up with Communism.' They became unmanageable. We were forced to kill them."

Others in this camp of Moslem and Buddhist Chinese soldiers said the execution started when the Communist soldiers refused to divulge the name of their commander.

They said the 500 were slain before he was identified.

This report conflicted with another that the commander, Yuan-Fah, leader of the fourth column, committed suicide at Ninghsien when the National troops trapped his troops. Those executed were in the fourth column.

More British Settlers Asked

SASKATOON, May 25.—(CP)—A special committee presented to the Canadian Legion's national convention today a recommendation that Canada should encourage the emigration of "considerable numbers of immigrants," with emphasis on Britons.

The committee, under P. A. Fisher of Montreal, reported that the terms of the 15 resolutions it considered indicated:

1. That veterans have been re-established to "the point where it may now be considered to be in the national interest that immigration be contemplated on a larger scale."

2. Canada must assume her fair share in solving Europe's problem of displaced persons.

In 1946, the Legion urged the study of the problem but did not advocate large-scale immigration until rehabilitation had clarified.

The committee said increased immigration could reduce per capita costs of government, reduce unemployment, strengthen defence, maintain industrial capacity, and bring in necessary labor.

It asked that immigration be placed under a separate minister within the federal cabinet.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS EX BOXER TEACHING YOUTHS 'MANLY ART'

Jack Nuthall of Jasper Place is an ex-pugilist turned amateur promoter.

Just after the turn of the century Nuthall, who called himself Logan in the ring, campaigned as a middleweight out of Brighton, England. Today the enterprising Sussex man is tutoring 50 kids from 70 pounds up to the lightweight class in the Jasper Place Sporting Club.

At the week-end Nuthall co-operated with Alf Tansey of the Edmonton Boxing Club to present an open air card of 11 bouts to an enthusiastic audience at Jasper Place.

The show was a carnival, proceeds of which will go to reconstructing the community hall.

Decisions were announced in five of the bouts. Wayne Smith, 112, edged Gordie Osborne, 118, in a three-round bantamweight contest.

In a routing welterweight go, red-haired Gordie Nuthall mixed it with Mike O'Reilly of the Edmonton Club. Nuthall copped the unanimous decision on his lightning capacity.

Buddy McDonald and Ken St. Peter battled to a draw in their three-round welterweight bout. Donald of the Edmonton, holds the provincial crown for the weight.

Light middleweight St. Peter, a former champion, is the Alberta school champion.

Johnny Twinn scored a close featherweight triumph over Ray Barnes and Alex McNally settled for a draw with Dan McCallum in an 8-round bout.

Others participating included Don Hooper, Steve Goulds, Andre Cole, Harry Kirsch, Neil Goddard, G. Gaddes, Vern Scott, John Tansey, Dave Fleming, Jim Bingley, Bob Turlock and Ken Whitworth.

THIS FOOTPRINT MAY BE COSTLY

LOS ANGELES, May 26.—(AP)—Mrs. Tillie Siegel claims a footprint of Actress Greer Garson caused her downfall.

Mrs. Siegel, 48, says her fall occurred in the court of Grauman's Chinese theatre in Hollywood last Jan. 7. In a suit for $5,000 damages, directed against the theatre but not against Mrs. Garson, Mrs. Siegel alleged that she stubbed her toe on the imprint in cement of the actress' foot.

"While we were sorting out Communist regulars from conscripted peasants," he said, "the Communists started a rioting. They shouted 'Mao Tse-Tung' (Chinese Communist leader's name) and 'up with Communism.' They became unmanageable. We were forced to kill them."

Reds Get Posts In Finn Govt.

HELENI, XI, May 26.—(AP)—President Juho Paasikivi shook up his cabinet today in an effort to end the political crisis arising from Communist strikes.

From 20,000 to 100,000 were on strike in Finland in protest against the dismissal of Yrjo Leino, Communist minister of interior, censured by parliament last week.

Parliament voted non-confidence in him after he was criticized for letting 20 persons be extradited to Russia.

Paasikivi appointed Eino Kipil, of the Communist-dominated Popular Democratic Coalition, as minister of interior, succeeding Leino.

Lennart Heljas, Agrarian, was named minister of education.

Herta Kuusinen, wife of Lello and real leader of the Finnish Communists, was appointed vice-minister for social affairs.

The walkouts had paralyzed Finnish docks and spread to heavy industries. Communist-led 40,000 were on strike but the Communists and Popular Democrats placed the number at 100,000.

German Veterans Seeking To Enlist In Jewish Forces

FRANKFURT, Germany, May 26.—(AP)—The United States newspaper Stars and Stripes said yesterday that many German army veterans are trying to enlist with the Jewish forces fighting in Palestine.

The newspaper said more than 50 former German army men had applied to Jewish representatives in the United States zone since Israel proclaimed itself 10 days ago.

All have been turned down by the Jewish agency on the ground that it has no authority to accept volunteers.
